The 1957
ANCHOR

Newport News High School
Newport News, Virginia

Commemorates
the 350th Anniversary of the
First Permanent English Settlement
at Jamestown, Virginia

"The first Virginians landed in May 1607, built houses and a fort, planted crops, and began the struggle for the conquest of a vast primitive land. They brought with them their church and respect for God, maintained trial by jury and their rights as freemen, and soon were developing representative government."

—Jamestown Festival

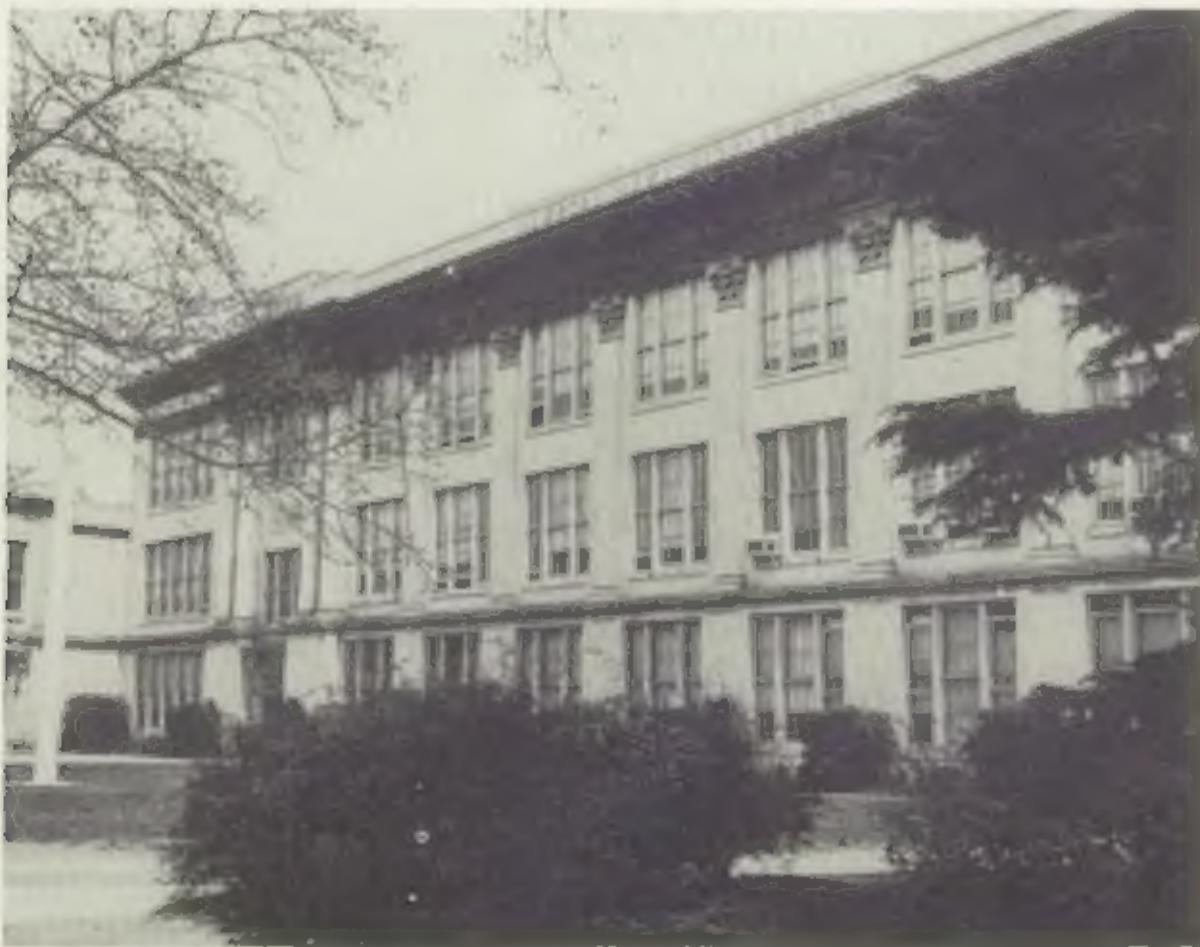

We, too, began to form our paths of life in a new environment when we entered NNHS. We strived to build good character, increase our wisdom, and broaden our abilities in order to prepare ourselves for a better life. Here we participated in a representative government, became members and leaders of various student organizations, and learned to assume responsibilities. As future leaders of our community and country, we leave NNHS realizing that we will have many challenges to face from day to day.

OUR INSPIRATION

It is our desire to dedicate the '57 ANCHOR to one we think well deserves this honor. The enthusiastic ideas you suggested have made it possible for us to plan many successful activities. Your guidance and deep interest in us have helped us to feel secure during our high school years. In addition, your cheerful attitude, vivacious personality, and dignity have made you the most likeable sponsor a class could have. Therefore, Miss Moneda Key, for being our inspiration, the class of 1957 dedicates this year's ANCHOR to YOU.

Faculty

The old Jamestown church provides a picturesque background for Gloria Tart and Whit Hancock.

Our Governor and Deputy-Governors

MR. GEORGE J. McINTOSH

Our principal, Mr. George J. McIntosh, supervises the general administration of Newport News High School. He plans the curriculum and sees that the necessary changes are made, approves all school activities, and has charge of planning all functions concerned with Newport News High School. He is admired and respected by students and faculty members because of his ability as a leader, friend, and excellent administrator.

MISS ETHEL M. GILDERSLEEVE

Miss Ethel M. Gildersleeve has many capacities, besides being Dean of Girls. She is a friend to all requiring individual guidance and her deep understanding and patience make it easy for students to confide in her. Being advisor to the Student Council also requires much of her time and patience.

MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

Our assistant principal, Mr. T. O. Keesee, is a well-known person around Newport News High School. He is always busy working out school schedules, and handling disciplinary problems. His sparkling humor and friendly personality make him a good friend to the students here at Newport News High School.

We Were Supported by the London Company

MRS. DAVID DICK

President of the Newport News High School P.T.A.

DR. R. O. NELSON

Dr. R. O. Nelson, the school superintendent, efficiently carries out the administrative duties of the school system. With careful consideration and planning of the yearly budget and construction of schools, he insures a smooth operation of the educational system. As a Christian gentleman, his quiet manner leaves a lasting impression upon both the faculty and students.

A group of teachers seem to be enjoying their lunch in the school cafeteria. Here they are able to relax for half an hour and chat informally.

In her free period we find Miss Lane checking test papers, one phase of her day's work. Judging by her smile, some lucky student made an A.

Just as they do every morning before school begins, the teachers are getting the daily bulletin and other notices from their boxes in the office. Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Kelly, and Miss Lane are eager to examine the contents of their boxes.

Advised by His Elders

MR. THOMAS M. ROBINSON

My sincere best wishes to each of you as you complete one phase of your life and enter another.

As I believe most of you know, I have enjoyed my association with you in the past year. I have considered it a privilege to serve as your sponsor.

I will not attempt to give you advice since there are others more capable of this than I. Instead, I wish for each of you a full and happy life with the hope that as you complete each task you will emerge a better person by having attempted it.

Sincerely,

MONEDA E. KEY

Congratulations Class of 1957! I am grateful and honored that you selected me to serve as your sponsor.

You have reached an important plateau of your life. There are other plateaus that must be conquered, but you will not have as much help in scaling these new heights. You alone will determine your final place in life.

There is no set formula for living, but such things as courage, hard work, honesty, humility and a belief in God are necessary for a successful life.

America is still the land of opportunity. "Seek and ye shall find." Do not hesitate to stand up for truth and right and oppose that which you believe to be wrong. Live life to its fullest, and "This above all, to thine own self be true."

THOMAS M. ROBINSON

Because we had a variety of interests

Gary Stephenson, Bill Gwynn, and Millard Thomas study the slide rule in connection with learning about logarithms in Mr. Levy's algebra class.

"Who's afraid of a King snake?" say Christine Anas and Rose Manning, making a report on the snake. In their ninth grade general science class, they also study rocks, shells, soil, and other aspects of the earth's surface.

Mr. Mays, in a physics class, shows Richard Coltrane, Mary Johnson, and Jon Pearl the methods of heat transfer with convection apparatus, conduction apparatus, and a radiometer.

In his plane geometry class, Kenny Roberts begins proving that the alternate interior angles between two parallel lines are equal.

We followed different courses

Larry Fenigsohn, Waverly Daughtrey, Frank Cusson, Dick Wynne, and Don Hardy attempt to make hydrogen chloride in an experiment in chemistry class.

"Which is larger; which is less?" Bill Brewer asks Durwood Adams, pointing to the polyhedral angle which is drawn on the board in their solid geometry class.

Gera Tart and Courtney Korman examine an amoeba under their microscope and sketch the protozoan for their biology class

Janey Roane, in her office practice class, uses the mimeoscope for marking a stencil to be used in making a school poster

These courses created worthy

Miss Sherman explains to Carlene Matthews how to transpose music in her ninth grade music class. This is one of the many phases of music that her students learn.

While other members of the drama class watch, Charlotte Jones directs Gloria Tart, Jon Pearl, Lynne McKinsey, and Ned Midkiff in a play.

Practicing diligently on their saxophones so that someday they might be senior band members are Wallace Craver and Ed Harris in their band class.

Results for the ambitious colonists

"Let's sing," say Barbara Wolf and Kaye Thomas, preparing for a rehearsal of Handel's "Messiah" in their chorus class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Made up of representatives from each dormitory and presided over by Miss Ethel Gundersleeve, the Student Council appropriates money for school activities sponsored by the various clubs and sends representatives to S. C. A. Conferences. This year special stress was made on getting after projects, all income going to projects and in promoting a friendly atmosphere throughout the school.

Student Body Officers — Our school Government leaders preside over Student Council meetings and assemblies and represent the school to other schools and the community.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board — Heads of the Student Council committees, student body officers, and representatives from each class, who make up the Executive Board, serve as a planning group for the Student Council. They also nominate the Honor Council representatives and plan various assemblies.

HONOR COUNCIL

As the judicial branch of our student government, the Honor Council's object is to reprobate, nominate by the Executive Board and elect by the recessional committee, a section of the Honor Code dealing with each offender as an individual. The Council, for many purposes, is not to punish, but to impress offenders with the wrongness of their acts — that they will not be repeated.

Sitting: Wendell Williamson, Mrs. Nettles, Carolyn Clark, Nancy Keesee, Doris Hays, Dick Wynn. Standing: Harry Weinstein, Ronnie Burroughs, Billy Jenkins.

CAFETERIA COMMITTEE

Cafeteria Committee — This group heads the Community Chest and Junior Red Cross drive. They also sponsor the "dine of the week" awards and decorate the cafeteria for special occasions.

THE EIGHT-TEA RITUAL

Graciously we gave thanks

George Hondros' speech to us for the Thanksgiving Assembly about the war-torn country in which he had lived was very inspiring to everyone.

Santa Claus, played by Dino Vratos, surveys the list left to him by the children in the Christmas Assembly.

The music at the Christmas Assembly was provided by the Senior Chorus who sang a few numbers from the "Messiah."

Nancy Keesee, Evelyn Cusey, Beverley Powell, and Pat Helmick read the scripture in the Thanksgiving Assembly, greatly moving all who heard them.

Santa Claus brought four marching soldiers and a dancing doll to the Christmas Assembly. They are Rodney Wyatt, Jesse Kersey, Al Creal, Joe Carney, and Melinda Walker.

During the holiday season

Nestled in the help of a puppy, credits for Mrs. McHale, Joan Fletcher and Mrs. Key are concluding it over.

GOALPOST GOSSIP

The Newport News High School gold and blue football team opened their 1958 season with 13 lettermen, but the gridiron fortunes were dark because of Newport News High School playing the toughest schedule in Group I scholastic circles. For the first time in over 20 years, Newport News High School opened its season away from home tying Manchester 0-0. The Typhoon, in its first home game, defeated the Princess Anne Cavaliers 26-8, gaining revenge for the previous season's loss. The Gold and Blue eleven then were defeated by E. C. Glass 26-12. The Gold and Blue gridironers then handed Maury a 13-7 loss. The following week, the powerful Woodrow Wilson Presidents handed the Typhoon a 39-6 shellacking. The Warwick Farmers tied the Typhoons the following weekend in a 6-6 game which saw Warwick, the favorite team, score a touch down in the waning moments to tie the gallant underdog Typhoons. The Newport News warriors then suffered a 27-12 defeat at the hands of undefeated Norview. They then lost a 12-6 game to the Granby Comets. Again the N.N.H.S. eleven roared back to defeat powerful Craddock 21-20 and played then arch rivals, Hampton, to a 0-0 standstill in their 59th annual Turkey Day Classic.

The record of three wins, four losses, and three ties is not a true indication of the ability of this season's squad. The Gold and Blue Typhoons played eight of the toughest games in the state and gave a highly creditable performance in each of them. Coaches said that if Newport News had had a few breaks and had not had injuries to key players, the Gold and Blue might have had one of the best records in the state. Coach J. C. Range and Captain Skippy Weitz gave a highly inspirational leadership to this team. Skippy Weitz was awarded the Julian Gordon Trophy for the outstanding player on the squad.

This year's team will go down as one of the best defensive teams Newport News High School has had in many years. From the appearance of this year's squad, it looks as if Newport News will soon regain its position as a Group One football power.

Our coach's inspiring influence

Here are our two leaders, Captain Bucky Keller, Outstanding Scholastic Basketball Player of Virginia," and Coach Bill Chambers, one of the best coaches in Virginia and the Peninsula's "Man of the year in Sports."

COURT CAFERS

There is an old saying that lightning never strikes twice, but the Golden Typhoon Cagers of Newport News High School disproved this saying by winning their second consecutive Group One State Championship. The Court Wizards of Coach Bill Chambers compiled an amazing 21-1 overall season record. The Typhoon team won 19 games and lost 1 during the regular season. They compiled a 19-1 season record in district play. They established a fabulous 21-game winning streak after suffering an early season loss to Wilson. They also annexed their second consecutive Eastern District Championship and their second consecutive Eastern Tournament Championship.

Among the other records established by this team are that they tied Roanoke High School for winning the most state championships — 8. Also for making the finals in 9 out of 10 state championships.

The Golden Typhoon's record is more amazing when we stop and realize that Coach Chambers had only one regular back from last year's championship team. The only returnee was Captain Bucky Keller. Together with Bucky, Mr. Chambers took Kenny Roberts, Bobby Jones, Donald Ellis, and Jack Tesh and moulded them into one of the greatest defensive and offensive five that has ever been seen in Group Scholastic Court circles. This team showed poise, rebounding strength, and determination to win that would not usually be expected from an inexperienced team such as this.

Coach Chambers has guided the Typhoons for three seasons and in that stretch has compiled a phenomenal 67-8 record which truly places him among the best scholastic coaches in the country. His team showed so much poise and polish in the State Group One tournament that the Golden Typhoon waltzed through the tournament games. Coach Chambers' Court Magicians were paced by Captain Bucky Keller. Keller proved himself to be one of the greatest all-round basketball players ever to be seen in Virginia. This was proven by his being selected the best high school basketball player in Virginia. Center Don Ellis' rebounding and shooting promoted the Typhoon cause greatly. In Jack Tesh, Newport News High School had one of the best ball handlers and floor men in the state. No coach could ask for two finer guards than Kenny Roberts and Bobby Jones. Despite their lack of height, as basketball players go, they proved themselves excellent rebounders, master ball hawks, and brilliant play makers. These five boys plus the capable and valuable work of reserves Billy Bradley, Allen Foster, Jimmy Shires, Roger Heflin, Harry Conn, Bill Queen, Jerry VanNoy, and Don Hardy were the contributing factors to the Typhoon success.

The Golden Typhoon loses only one regular — Bobbi Jones and two reserves — Jimmy Shires and Bill Queensberry from the talented squad.

Along quarterback row, the experts are predicting that with a year's experience these boys will go on to win their third consecutive State Group One basketball championship. The Typhoon team received many individual honors. Bucky Keller made the All-State Group One team, All-Eastern District team, and was also the most valuable player in both the Group One Tournament and the Eastern District Tournament.

Don Ellis, also, made the All-Group One Tournament team and Kenny Roberts was chosen the sixth best player in the Group One Tournament, just missing making the All Tournament team. The Penn Williams trophy for the outstanding player was awarded to Bucky Keller. The entire team was given State Championship letters and State Championship jackets by the school. This team can be summed up by Coach Chambers' statement in letter assembly, "They were great."

THE CINDER TRAIL

The cinder thin-clads of Newport News High School are expected to again be one of the state's top track aggregations. The track team this year is coached by Coach Julius Conn and Coach Charles Nuttycombe. Ivan Goldberg and Jerry Saunders, Co-captains of the 1957 track team, are two of the key men around which the coaches have built the team. Other outstanding performers are Virgil Meares in the mile, Skippy Wietz in the hurdles, Raoul Weinstein in the 440, Henry Goad in the high jump, Dan Outland in the shotput, and David Wittan in the discus. Jerry Saunders' specialty is the two hurdle races, while Goldberg doubles in the 100 and 220. As the 1957 ANCHOR was on the presses, the track squad was preparing to enter the Tidewater and Eastern District meets. Up to press time of the yearbook, the track squad had won its first five dual meets in a row.

TOUCHING ALL BASES

The 1957 baseball season was just getting underway as the 1957 ANCHOR went to press. This year's squad is composed of ten lettermen with promising seniors and sophomores. Head coach, Jack Powers and assistant coach, Pete Robinson were confident that they could have a good season at the home diamond was ever fixed up so that they could practice on it. From the first few games played, it looked as if Newport News High School would be a real contender for the Eastern District title. With each game the team gained more experience and polish. Bobby Jones was elected captain of the 1957 baseball squad. Some of the outstanding members of this year's squad are Tommy Morgan, Dick Wynne, Phil Collins, Jimmy Shires, Larry Ruhland, David Jones, and Bobby Jones.

MEMO TO:
the girl who wants
an interesting job

You'll find it at the telephone company, where there's a variety of fascinating jobs for alert, capable young women who qualify.

You'll work in pleasant surroundings with many people about your own age... receive good pay while learning... get regular raises. And you don't need any experience.

Best of all, a telephone job is a satisfying job because you know you're helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

A CREED FOR AMERICAN YOUTH

I resolve to let no time or opportunities slip unused by me; that in small things I will strive to do the best that I can in order that the big opportunities of the future will find me qualified. I realize that my future is an enlargement of the present. What I do in my high school years will make me stronger in character that I may help to make a stronger America.

These Dawn Lovers always personify that fresh, well-groomed, sophisticated look. These girls achieve that appearance because they know that they can depend upon Dawn's excellent and efficient laundry to keep their clothes fresh and neat.

When these lovely lasses are entertaining their beaus and company they know that their home will always be clean and attractive because of Dawn's excellent dry cleaning of linens and home furnishings. These eight young ladies are thankful for Dawn's efficient and varied services
